A Sad Affair.

But a few weeks ago, a young man, the son of a prominent and wealthy father in this city, was married to a young lady whose acquaintance he formed when away. The young couple came here and all went seemingly well for some time until the young wife, who is naturally head. strong and impulsive, formed a street acquaintance with a well known young man about town. The mis guided young woman last Friday left her home and went to the rooms of the person with whom she was infatuated. She drank deeply until lost to all shame and oblivious of the terrible settling that was to come. Sunday morning the room of the false wife's paramour was entered by the chief of police and she was taken to a hotel. Efforts on her part at a reconciliation are indignantly repudiated by the injured husband and his relatives, and the girl will be taken home by her father who arrived in the city to day.

With great good sense the young man refrained from committing any D. 1882, that being the day of the rash act when the terrible blow to his honor and that of his family dawned on him, but is glad to be well rid of a forced, and they are hereby ordered woman who has proved so unworthy.

THE SENTINEL is a warm personal friend of the relatives of the young man, and we shall not add to their already poignant distress by mentioning names or further alluding to the

MONDAY, MAY 1.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY. BY E. A. R. HACKETT.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET. Following is the democratic ticket, and a ticket that should and will re ceive the support of all:

Water works trustee-James Breen. Councilman first ward—Louis

Second ward-C. Hettler. Third ward-Abraham Wolf. Fourth ward-William Yergens. Fifth ward-John M. Reidmiller. Sixth ward-J. Sion Smith.

Seventn ward-John Wessel aud George Alter.

Eighth ward-John W. Vorder-

Ninth ward-William Pape.

DEMOCRATS and all lair minded men, should bear in mind the greed and haste of the republicans to fill the position of criminal judge.

THE republicans tried desperately to get up a councilmanic boom, but as the people, one and all, are entirely satisfied with the democratic administration and desire to "let well enough alone," the scheme utterly failed; in fact, it was choked off in its intancy.

CANDIDATES for office can impress themselves on the voters in no better way than by going to the polls tomorrow, where their services are most needed, and labor from morn till might for the success of the democratic ticket.

THE ward committeemen displayed good judgment Saturday night in selecting Frank H. Wolke chairman and Fred C. Boltz secretary. Both are honorable men and true democrats, Mr. Wolke, especially, being one of the oldest and best democratic workers in the city or county.

THE SENTINEL predicts, and with pride, that the entire democratic ticket will be elected to-morrow. It bases this prediction simply and solely on the belief that the people will support and perpetuate in power the best and most economical municipal government in Indiana. "Mark the prediction."

MICHIGAN has got the walking match fever, and got it bad, too. A match opens at Kalamazoo next Wednesday night for the championship of the state. Whenever a "popular sport" begins to wane, and will not be tolerated in any other state, Michigan always catches on and gives the thing a decent burial.

THE democrats of the ninth ward should unite on William Pape for councilman. With one candidate in the field the democrats will win, but with two or three in the field the republican will step in. Let the ranks be closed up and democrats face the enemy in a solid phalanx.

THE republicans are making a des perate effort to defeat John M. Reidmiller, in the fifth ward, and on no other ground than that he is the regular democratic nominee. It is earnestly to be hoped that a ward which the residence of so many leading democrats will not be turned over to republican rule and a man defeated because he is a democent The party leaders midding

JUDGE WORDEN, of the supreme court, a life long democrat, selected Judge John Morris, a staunch republican, for the position of as sociate judge of the supreme court. Did the republicans return the compliment and select a democrat for criminal judge? Oh, no! Still they say we should lose right of politics in local matters.

AT City hall Saturday evening James Breen, the old established Calhoun street merchant, was nominated for water works trustee. Mr. Breen is one of Fort Wayne's pioneer citizens and for many years has been identified with her best interests. A few years ago Mr. Breen served a term in the city council with honor to himself and his constituents. He is a democrat of the purest kind, a man of liberal ideas, possessed of good judgment and in every way fitted for the position for which he was chosen. It is safe to say that no man will be found in the republican party to oppose him.

Mr. Eiva Kelsey will move to town May 2. We welcome him into our midst. He and his brother will engage in the butchering business in place of Abner Kelsey.

We gatner the following facts from a Fort Wayne paper of April 22: 'The Allen county clerk states that the Rev. D. A. Johnson, of Zanesville, forwarded to him the return of a marriage in which it appears that the groom, Mr. Robert Earl, aged twenty five years, has been married five hundred and ten times and the bride, Viola Robinson, four times." According to this statement, Mr. Robinson, if he began his marriage relations at the lawful age of twenty-one, must have taken to himself, on an average, 1274 companions each year, or from his infancy twenty and two-fifth

A week or ten day ago a soliciting agent for lightning rods, claiming to be from Chicago, with the companies' headquarters at Huntington, came to Mr. Amos Slain, of Union township, Wells county, for the purpose of selling him some rod; for his house. Mr. Slain was not inclined to purchase but the man insisted on making a sale, Mr. Slain as firmly resisting. At last however it appears that by some means the agent succeeded in getting Mr. 8.'s name and a few days later another party appeared at Mr. Slain's with the rods and a written contract with Mr. Slain's name properly signed to it, and as nearly like his hand writing as if he had written it himself. And yet both he and his family positively declare that he signed no paper or agreement of any kind for the agent. They charged him $124 60 for rods worth about $30 or $35. Such swindlers should have detectives on their trail. Let others take warning from this bit of rascality.

Poverty and Distress.

That poverty which produces the most distress is not of the purse, but of the blood. Scrofulous swellings, loss of appetite, consumption, etc. are among the common results of impure blood. If you are a sufferer, it will be to your interest to employ Loose's Extract of Red Clover Blossoms which enriches the blood and carries off these grave affections.

PRESS REPORTS.

In Open Letter From Otto J. Boss burg, Proprietor "Helland City News," Holtand City, Michigan.

It is with no small degree of satisfaction that I express myself as to the magical princkilling and healing properties of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. A bad cold settled in my side and back which affected my kidneys, and with rheumatism combined, was another in the principal state. I was suffering terrible pains, I tried remedies and our local doctors with but little relief. As a 'forlorn hope" I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclettric Oi', and have used only half a 50-cent bottle and feel as well seven I did in the life.

PREJUDICE OF THE PRESS OVERCOME.

For fifteen or twenty years I have been troubled with that terrible disease, catarrh; had lost my sense of smell and taste; also my sight and hearing were failing fast. Tried scores of advertised remedies, with no success, and finally resolved to overceme my prejudice and make one more trial, which I did with Thomas' Eclectric Oil. After using part of the first bottle I began to feel better, and the improvement spidly increased, and now I consider myself nearly as well as ever.

Appointment of Delegates to all the Conventions--A Strong Resolution Instructing for Judge Lowry.

The Noble county democracy met Saturday at Albion in large numbers and had quite a spirited convention. Delegates to the state, judicial, senatorial and joint representative conventions were selected by a committee raised for that purpose, reported to the convention and approved. The congressional delegates were appointed in open convention, as determined by resolution to that effect, with the proviso that all persons nominated for appointment as delegates be required to define their position and state whom they would support as candidate for congress. The following persons were appointed delegates:

James C. Steward, Michael Beck, Harrison Wood, C V. Inks, Jerse B. Smith, W. C. Davis, John A. Bruce, M. V. Hall, J. M. Childs, N. B. Newman, F. A. Black, J. B. Rinelberger, Henry Hill, James Earnhart.

The following resolution of instruction was adopted:

Resolved, That without disparaging the claims of other candidates for congress in this district, that it is the sense of this convention that the overwhelming sentiment and choice of the democracy of Noble county is that the Hon. Robert Lowry, of Fort Wayne, ought to be nominated for congress at Kendallville in June next; that his great learning and experience in law, his brilliant and unsullied reputation throughout the state as an eminent jurist; his long residence in Northern Indiana, and his great familiarity with our political system and complicated national and state machinery; his great integrity and eminent fitness in all respects for the position, singularly and most strongly recommend him as the man the de mocracy ought to nominate for congress in this district; and the more surely to represent the choice of this convention and of the democratic party of Noble county in the congressional convention to meet at Kendallville in June next, this convention now hereby instructs its delegates to that convention to vote for the Hon. Robert Lowry.

Eighth ward-John Greer, Theodure Neiman, William Baade and John Barrand.

Ninth ward-John Langohr, Gus. Strodel, Henry Linker and Thomas

After roll call a motion was made that Col. C. A. Zollinger act as chairman. The colonel stepped forward and with thanks declined to act inasmuch as he was not a delegate, but notwithstanding his protestations the convention insisted on his acting as chairman, which he finally consented to do.

Michael V. Walsh was unanimously chosen secretary and Louis Fox and William Moellering tellers. The chair stated that the object of the meeting was the selection of a candidate for water works trustee, and the aspirants, James Breen and Wm. Meyer stepped forward and pledged themselves to abide the decision of the convention. The tellers collected the ballots and the count showed that Mr. Breen received twenty-three votes and Wm. Meyer thirteen. Mr. Breen having received a majority of all the votes cast was declared the nominee of the convention. No further business appearing the convention adjourned. THE COMMITTEEMEN CONVENE.

After the convention adjourned and the delegates departed the committeemen from the different wards met, and after being called to order elected Frank H. Wolke permanent chairman and Fred. C. Boltz secretary. The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. The committeemen of the different

The Journal says that "on last Tiesday at the Catholic church in Laporte, Ind., Mr. William Mungovan, of Fort Wayne, was united in marriage to Miss Alice Campion, formerly of this city. and who possesses many friends in the Star City. It was a double wedding, at which Mr. R. F. Markey and Miss Lizzie Mungovan, sister of the first mentioned groom, were also married. The ceremonies of solemn mass were begun at 9 a. m. Rev. M. E. Campion, brother of the bride first named, was the celebrant of the marriage ceremonies and of the mass. He was assisted by Father Hagerty, of South Bend, as descen of the mass, and Father Lang, of Oxford, as sub-deacon, and Father O'Connell, of Notre Dame, master of ceremonies. Among the long list of elegant presents was a handsome steel engraving from the Misses Nora and Maggie Morrison, of this city, and a silk dress pattern from the Misses Lennons, of Chicago, tormerly of this city.

Collision on the Grand Rapids

At noon yesterday, a serious collision occurred on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad between Huntertown and LaOtto. The second section of freight train No. 12 ran into the rear end of the first section splitting the caboose and a freight car completely in two. The front of the engine was crushed in by the collision, the engineer and fireman escaping serious if not fatal injuries by jumping from the cab, while the occupants of the splintered caboose were fortunate enough to see the approaching engine and make themselves scarce. The debris was quickly cleared away and trains running

A Physician's Advice.

Don't expect to cure constipation of the bowels, dyspepsis, indigestion, etc., by the use of severe cathartic medicines. Relief thus obtained is only temporary. When the reaction comes the disease has a firmer hold on the digestive system than at first. The practice of taking cathartic medicines is the cause of a great amount of unnecessary suffering. The dose must be increased from time to time until digestion is impossible without their use, and the liver and bowels eventually become a mass of corruption that death only can relieve. The way to permanently cure weak imperfect digestion is to purify the blood and strengthen every part of the body by the use of such tonics as Yellow Dock, Sarsaparilla, Juniper, Iron, Celery and Oalisaya, all of which ingredients enter into the composition of Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsuparilla, the queen of all health renewers. It increases the power of endurance and counteracts the pernicious effects of physical or mental exhaustion.

Mr. Sidney McNanny, of New Richmond, O., writes: "My lungs were weak, my breath came quick and short, my leart palpitated, my dreams disturbed me, my blood was poisoned with scrofnla; my back ached, I had dyspepsis, my kidneys were affected. I could not work nor could I even eat Laporte.

TABOR'S TROUBLES.

The Skeleton in a Bonaza Mill-

ionaire's Closet. Denver (Col.) Letter to Chicago Times. Just now Denver's wealthy and aristocratic society, and society which is not wealthy and aristocratic-in fact everybody in the pretty, aspiring little city who reads the newspapers and listens to gossip-is greatly interested in the suit brought by Mrs Augusta L. Tabor against her husband, Horace A. W. Tabor, lieutenant governor of the state of Colorado, the kaiser among the state bonanza royalty, and a formidable candidate this fall for the United States senate.

The suit is not brought for a di vorce, though the plaintiff says that he has deserted her; but it is to compel the defendent to support her. She states in her petition that her husband has repeatedly refused to pay tax s on the family residence. and other expenses, and that she is necessitated to rent rooms for her own support; while among the charges is the infidelity of the defendant. The defendant smiles a calm smile, and says: "I have given her $100,000. What has she done with it?" Twenty-five years ago Horace A. W. Tabor took Augusta Pierce 'for better, for worse," winning her away from wealthier suitors; took her from her pleasant Maine home and brought her to the wilderness of Kansas. Here they preempted a farm, but they were too poor to stock it. So they started for Colorado amid the gold excite ment, he hoping for a stroke of luck that would enable them to make enough to fit up their farm, she fol lowing, uncomplainingly, wherever he went. And for twenty years they labored together in Colorado, she bearing haif of the burdens; the first white woman in many a region, living all the time beyond the limits of culture; cooking and working, not only for her family, but for the men her husband had employed, assisting him to wait upon the customers of the little mountain store of which he was prop rietor. A life such as this for twenty years. Then the waiting and working and hoping brought their reward. Presto! the Little Pittsburg was dis covered in California Gulch, where they had long looked for gold, and found none. Mr. Tsbor became a rich man. A state election was held. Mr. Tabor became a lieutenant-gov-

In fairy books or novels this would be the delightful climax of the story; it is the juncture where the chronicler should stop, but this tale didn't. True, they bought a handsome house, females. At last his attentions to this class became so open that his he transferred his residence to the offered her money if she would sue for a divorce, but the spunky wife would not gratify him by acceding. And for a year and a half they have lived openly apart, both going in the best circles of Denver society.

sort of a fellow. He has built elegant buildings for Denver and Leadgenerous sorts of things. I remember when he intended building his opera house, he met one day a stone mason whose only fault was poverty, he was both capable and honest. Tabor, who is him-elf a mason by trade, and knew the young man said to him: "Are you not going to bid on my opera house?" "No," replied the other; "for if I should win it I have no rosity and good nature that he has sinned.

But when he comes forward and pleads that he has given his wife $100,000, while he himself is worth $10,000,000, I have no patience with him. Granting that he has given it to her, about which I do not know, it is a very paltry sum, when by every written decree of just humanity she is entitled to much more. "The apple raised by the mutual industry of the pair should be equally divided between them." Oh! it will not be, you may be certain of that. Men do not usually agree to a division of that kind; but it is a keen disgrace, I take it, to the lieutenant governor of Colorado that his wife should be compelled to go before the courts and ask for maintenance, and that he shall pay the taxes on the house she lives in, which is still in his name. But then there were no taxes to be paid in the little log cabin of yore, unless it was to the Indians, who sometimes constituted themselves collectors, and were such as not to be despised. The ruit is the talk of the hour just now in Denver, and the sympathy is all on the side of the wife. They have but one son, a young fellow of twentyfour, now in Europe. He treats his parents with equal affection, and both are equally fond of him. It is said. bowever, that the Colorado law makes no provision for a snit of Mrs. Tabor's kind, unaccompanied by a plea of divorce. So it remains to be seen what will outcome of it all.

A SURPRISED DRUMMER.

A commercial traveler while journeying in Europe got into a railway carriage in which he found a gentleman sitting. The two exchanged glances as in the manner of fellow-travelers. From looks they proceeded to words, and in the course of time there was a much animated conversation. As they neared the destinated station, the Squire—for so he might be properly termed -said to the comercial

"Where do you happen to be putting up at this place?', "At the Golden Cross." was the

HATTER AND GENT'S FURNISHER, 258 Calhoun St.

It is an old maxim and a very true one, that "a penny saved is as good as two earned," and if you will notice you will find every self-made successful man applies it to himself. Then don't go down town and pay $4 for a hat you can buy at 258 Calboun street for $3; don't pay $3 for a hat you can buy at $2.25; don't pay $2 for a hat you can buy at $1.50; don't pay $1.50 for a hat you can buy for $1; don't pay $1 for a hat you can buy at 75 cents.

All Other Goods Equally as Low.

Come and see if I don't prove it to you, and that I mean business. O. CRABBS, 258 Calhoun st.
